

CS-UY 3083 Project File Function Description

Bowen Gong, bg1941; Qingyuan Yao, qy624

welcome.html: shows the first page of our website, and include functions like search future flight, check flight status, customer/staff register, and login.

g_search.html: will direct the user to the search future flight page, user doesn't need to login an account to use this function.

g_status.html: allows user to check flights status by searching airline name and flight number, don't need to login c_register .html the page where customers get themselves new accounts and input all their information.

s_register.html: the page where staffs get themselves new accounts and input all their information.

c_login.html: the page for customers who already have accounts to login

s_login.html: the page for staffs who already have accounts to login c_homepage.html: the home page for customer, include 3 functions, view flight, search flight, and track spending.

c_viewFlight.html: include 2 functions that customer can use, view future flight and view past flight, customer can comment their flight in the view past flight function.

c_futureFlight.html: shows all the future flight purchased by the customer.

c_pastFlight.html: show all the past flight took by the customer, customer can rate their pass flight here

c_searchFlight.html: the page that allows customer to search for flights and purchase them by searching airports and departure dates.

c_mySpending.html: Track the customer spending in the past 6 weeks

c_trackSpending.html: Track the customer spending in a given time range.

c_cancel.html: the page where customer can cancel their future flights.

c_logout.html: log out customer account s_homepage.html: the homepage for airline staff, including function check flight information, search flight, modify airline/airport, view statistics, and view month and annual revenue.

s_flightInfo.html: show flight information in the next 30 days, staff can change the flight status here, and add new flight into the system.

s_searchFlight.html: the page where staff can search a particular flight, no matter it is in the future or in the pass, and they can also view the ratings and check/change status.

s_modiApAp.html: shows all the airplanes and their information, staff can add airplane or airport to the system, too

s_viewRate.html: the page where staff can see the rate and comments of flights.

s_viewStat.html: the page where staff can see the most frequent customer, and search for flight ticket selling statistics.

s_viewCustomer.html: shows the most frequent customer.

s_ticketSold.html: the page which shows the ticket selling statistics.

S_viewRevenue.html: allows the staff to see the month and annual income.